Regional Public Radio Station commits nightly free programming to those in addiction recovery, their families and health-care professionals.

AKRON, OH - "The Summit" 91.3 FM Akron/Canton, and 90.7 FM Youngstown/Warren and western Pennsylvania, a recognized music leader in non-commercial, public radio – is committing nightly programming time to Rock & Recovery™, a multimedia, subscription-free service for those in addiction recovery, their families and health-care professionals.

Rock & Recovery™ programmed at "The Summit" - combines uplifting, rock-based music from five decades, with positive messaging, humor, recovery strategies and testimonials. The channel also offers educational addiction programming delivered by health-care professionals.

A full hour of Rock & Recovery™ programming will air nightly from Midnight-to-1:00 a.m. on 91.3 FM Akron; 90.7 FM Youngstown, and online at www.thesummit.fm

"Our goal is simple – especially during the holiday season – to become a resource, another tool, in health-care professionals' and addictive specialists' recovery strategy, especially right in our own community," said Rock & Recovery's™ executive director Tommy Bruno.

Rock & Recovery™ program director, Garrett Hart, added, "Alcohol and drug counselors and caseworkers tell us the people who are attempting recovery are most vulnerable to relapse in the late hours of the evening", Hart added, Rock & Recovery™ speaks directly to people who are most in need of support.

Rock & Recovery™ is a multi-award winning on-air, on-line, and smart phone APP.
