Regional public radio station to feature newly elected Cuyahoga Falls Mayor's all-time favorite songs and stories through Life & Lyrics

Akron, Ohio – “The Summit” 91.3FM, the music intensive, regionally supported public radio station, is sharing the Life & Lyrics of The Honorable Don Walters, on Sunday, March 2, 2014 at 8:00 a.m.

Life and Lyrics is a locally-produced radio program hosted by Summit on-air personality Bill Hall. Guests of the program have the opportunity to share the music, stories and impact those songs had on their lives.

“Music inspires us, it teaches us, and allows us to vividly identify with our important life experiences.” said Summit General Manager Tommy Bruno. “All of us have a story to tell, and we’re privileged that Mayor Walter took us up our offer to tell his.”

Since 2001, Mayor Don Walters served the city of Cuyahoga Falls as a councilmember in Ward 6. During his tenure on City Council, Don served as the Finance Committee Chair, the Public and Industrial Improvements Committee Chair, the Public Affairs Committee Chair, and has also served on numerous boards and commissions.

Listen to Mayor Walters on The Summit's Life and Lyrics with Bill Hall, Sunday, March 2, 2014, from 8:00 a.m. to 8:30 a.m. on 91.3FM in Akron/Canton and 90.7FM in Youngstown/western PA, or steaming worldwide at www.thesummit.fm
